A. Purpose:

Nyack Library has established this Behavior Policy to ensure that library facilities are safe, welcoming and provide equitable access to materials and services for all library users. Appropriate library conduct includes activities such as reading, studying, properly using library materials, attending programs, training classes, community meetings or using computers and other similar conduct typically associated with a public library.

The violation of these rules is misconduct that can result in the suspension of library privileges. First time violations of these rules will result in library staff informing individuals about library behavior policies. If an individual continues to violate these policies, staff will require them to leave for the remainder of the day. Any conduct that threatens the life or safety of any person or that is damaging to library property, equipment or facilities will result in immediate expulsion from the library premises and/or police intervention. When individuals refuse to comply with directions to leave the premises, Library staff will contact the Orangetown Police Department to respond to such situations. Repeat misconduct or severe offenses; even if a single isolated event, may result in individuals being barred from the Library for a period of time to be determined at the discretion of the Library Director or designee.

F. Suspension of Library Access and Privileges:
One-Day Dismissal: When individuals refuse to comply with directions to follow library policies, they will be asked to leave the Library for the remainder of the day. Such dismissals, when involving youth, are dealt with under the direction of Youth Services staff and/or Person-In-Charge (PIC) or Safety Officer. The episode will be documented with an Incident Report to the Library Director and other authorized staff. The primary staff member involved with the behavioral problem will document the incident before the end of his/her shift and deliver it to the PIC for review and signing, who will then forward it to the Library Director or designee before the end of the day. The Safety Officer will consult with the PIC and any other staff as necessary to fully understand the incident and to present all relevant information, including images from the Library’s video security system, to the Library Director.

Suspension of library access for specific periods of time: When an individual person has engaged in severe or repeated misconduct, the Library Director may suspend the individual’s library privileges for a specified period of time. The Library Director will send a letter notifying the individual, or in the case of a patron under the age of 18, the individual’s parent or guardian, informing them of the suspension of privileges, its duration and the process for appealing the suspension. The Director will report the measures to the Board in the monthly Director’s Report when incidents are of a serious nature (refer to Incident Reporting Policy), the Library Director will notify the Board of Trustees in a reasonable period of time.

The Library Director or designee will mail a letter to the individual indicating the reasons for the barring of the individual and the time period of the suspension. The letter will notify the barred individual of the process for appealing the suspension. Documentation of the incident and suspension will be maintained in the office of the Library Director, and the associated information will be shared with library staff as appropriate.

G. Alternative Juvenile Suspension Procedure:

Discretionary Restricted Library Use for Juveniles: The juvenile whose library use is restricted may use the library during the suspension period only when a responsible parent or guardian accompanies the juvenile. The juvenile’s parent or guardian must be notified of the restriction via certified mail. Failure to abide by the restriction may lead to barring of the juvenile from all access to library premises.
